India, Eastern Garhwal

Cas van den Gevel (The Netherlands) and William van Meegdenburg (Switzerland) climbed to 5,985m on an unnamed peak about 1km east-northeast of their Bagini Glacier base camp (4,510m) while acclimatizing for an attempt on the north face of Kalanka. From here they obtained a magnificent panorama photo of Kalanka, Changabang, Dunagiri, and other nearby peaks.
