Pared del Tiempo, Todo Cambia

Argentina-Chile, Northern Patagonia, Cochamó

In February, Cooper Varney, Elise Maillot, Laure Batoz, Caroline North, and Nick Heyward established a new route in El Antifeatro on Pared del Tiempo. The 8-pitch route, comprised of splitter cracks and roofs, was eventually free-climbed by Chris Moore and Cooper Varney on February 23. The route took five days of work, cleaning and adding bolted anchors (6 bolts total), with a mix of ground-up and top-down tactics, before it could be free climbed. They called the climb Todo Cambia ("Everything Changes," 450m, 5.11c). The recommended descent is via Doppler Effect (AAJ 2013).
