Heritage Point, Boiled Goose

Alaska, Chugach Mountains

In the first week of March, John Kelley and Ben Trocki established another new route on the Heritage Wall, a seldom-climbed, 3,900', Scottish-like wall located outside of Anchorage [see AAJ 2005 and AAJ 2013 for more information]. The new route, Boiled Goose (3,500', VI WI6 M6 A2), was climbed in 58 hours roundtrip from a bivy at the base of the wall and included two bivouacs en route.
