Storm Point, Highway to Heaven

Wyoming, Teton Range

In July, Pete Walka and I completed Highway to Heaven (11 pitches, 5.8) on Storm Point in the Tetons. As reported in AAJ 2015, the route ended at a high point I dubbed Tranquility Point. Upon returning in 2015, we found a free route to reach the true summit of Storm Point, with two pitches of outstanding 5.10 climbing on flawless granite, along with fourth-class scrambling, and one short 5.8 pitch.
