Mt. Grady, North Ridge

Canada, British Columbia, Columbia Mountains, Monashee Mountains

Shep Howatt and Dan Rohn made the first ascent of the north ridge of Mt. Grady in the Gold Range in August 2021. Their route, Grady Train (850m, TD- 5.8), is just to the west of the Gold Card Couloir, which splits the north faces of Grady and Mt. Burnham and was skied earlier in 2021 by Brette Harrington, Christina Lustenberger, and Andrew McNab (see AAJ 2022). Howatt and Rohn descended the east ridge of Grady and then scrambled around the south side of Burnham to a bivouac, then completed the descent the next day.
